

- Locations for access: Call for participation (posters, newsletters, self-referral, agency referral)
- Youth may initially access through DFNA or Juvenile Correctional Services, or Education System.
- Involvement in the HUB will be open, self-referral, nomination, parental invitation, community invitation

- Community Wellness is known for providing programs and services for all age groups.
- youth are seen by program leaders and support staff
- Transition support will be provided by youth leaders trained in peer support, and program staff of each of core programs offering services/programs

- Youth may also go to the following for services:
- Maskwacis Cultural College
  - Samson Community Friendship Centre
  - Howard Buffalo Memorial Centre
  - Individual Healers/knowledge keepers in the community.
  - For younger youth there are supportive referrals through the DFNA or Restorative Justice Program